WILL ADMIT WOMEN TO SWIMMING POOLS

New Athletic Club Will Be Available to Wives of Members.

Interest in the new Athletic Club for Washington is not confined to the men of the city whose applications for mem-bership are coming in by hundreds but their witer come. their wives are watching the progress of the new organization. Indications are that the big club house is destined to be one of the most popular social centers of the capital.

Those who will have charge of the con struction of the club house are paying particular attention to the arrangement of the features which will be attractive to the women. A house committee will have charge of that part of the club rou mething new to Washington will be the huge swimming pool and bath rooms to which women will be admitted. A fad for swimming parties is expected to reach Washington.

In other cities where there are facilities for swimming parties they are a rage, luncheon being served at small tables cround the pool.

Charles S. Genslinger, secretary of the new club, pledges the women of the club that the tables will be provided and every facility for serving will be at hand. A swimming instructor will be provided A swimming instructor will be at hand. A swimming instructor will be provided doing much social service work this for women and in the gymnasium there will be athletic experts. Children will be given an opportunity to take advantage of the club.

It is the plan to arrange social events en a big scale in the reception rooms which will always be at the disposal of the wives, sisters, mothers and daughters of the members when they are desired. Members are privileged to extend the club's accommodations to the women of their immediate families, each of whom will be presented with a card giving them

NOTES OF THE SCHOOLS

When the snowstorm was at its height Friday, little folk at Wilson Normal School were taken on a trip to Santa School were taken on a trip to Santa Claus' house in Zero Land. In reindeer sleds they slid over the crisp snow on icicle street, through Snowball avenue to Elizzard terrace, where Santa Claus greeted them and made a jolly speech. Then he told them of little boys and girls, living very near the school building, that he had found without shoes or coats. Miss Margaret Dodge was Santa Claus.

Seniors at Tech are preparing for their usual celebration on the last day before the helidays. A skit will be given be-fore the school at assembly in the morning, and a special luncheon will be served after which the faculty Christmas tree treasures will be presented to faculty perintendent Thurston and Assistant Sumembers. These are always fun-provoking gim cracks that the seniors spend speakers. nuch thought in selecting.

It will be decided at a meeting of the Board of Education whether next Friday is to be a school holiday. According to the rules, "the day before Christmas" is a holiday; whether that means a school day or a calendar day remains for the Board to decide.
